With Sally

Well, there was George Washington and he was the Father of his Country. So John thought such a man should deserve some recognition from the younger generation. John has always wished that he could look stern and be the Father of His Country and hang in people's front parlors.

We were trying to write our column and had just reached the place where we were enthusiastically describing the new spring rhubarb at Milo's Market, when we heard John and Sue Ann in the next room.

"Yes," John was saying, "George Washington never told a lie and he spent the long hard winter in the snow at Valley Forge."

Snow, we thought hastily; oh yes, snowflake sodas at Vireno's Market - 1 lb. package, 15c. Frozen foods at Farmers Market, strawberries, peas - - -

"Wish I could go up to the snow to ski," said Sue Ann. "All the other kids are going. Daddy, you should just see the cute new sweaters at Warshawski's - - -"

"Hmmm . . mm" said John. "Now about George Washington. In spite of all his fame, he retired later to Mount Vernon to end his days happily."

Oh yes, we wrote down, H. H. Smith has some wonderful bargains in home-repair work; and for comfortable, smart new furniture, see Metropolitan Appliance company.

"He wanted to live on a farm when it was all over," John continued with a break in his voice. "He was a great man."

We wiped our brow and tried to concentrate. Maybe George Washington liked fresh fruits and vegetables such as garden produce from Westlake Market, farm-fresh eggs from Robertson's Egg Store, home-baked bread at Geneva Bakery . . .

"Daddy, can't I go up into the snow with the other kids?"

We knew the Spirit of '76 had received a jolt. John clung desperately to his Psychology for the Modern Parent.

"I thought you wanted to see 'Texas Rangers Ride Again' at the Daly City theatre," he said diplomatically. "I think George Washington would rather have done that than go skiing."

We heard Sue Ann slowly turning the pages of the book. "In this picture of Valley Forge, George Washington looks awful dirty," she said. "I bet he didn't wash behind his ears."

We could hear John breathing hard. He tried to think of a reason why Sue Ann should wash behind her ears even if the Father of His Country didn't. In the silence we remembered that soap was on special at Daly City Cut Rate Market.

"Maybe he might fall in the river while he was Crossing the Delaware," contributed Sue Ann helpfully. "That would get him clean, wouldn't it, Daddy?"

Poor John. We felt so sorry for him that we hastily called through the door that Stan's Standard Station was giving away free candy to kiddies now.

But Sue Ann's mind was still on George Washington. "He could at

POPULAR DELUSIONS . . . by MacConachie

Amber Hunting

One of the oldest attractions of the Baltic is still an attraction—namely, picking up amber on the coast of Lithuania, the "land of northern gold," known to early Greeks and Romans.

New Airline Base

Canton island in mid-Pacific is being prepared as a stopping place for a new San Francisco-New Zealand airline.

Mountain lions and other predators are protected in the national parks.

Whist To Benefit Our Lady Church

Parish ladies whose names begin with "C" or "D" will be chairmen of a big whist party for the benefit of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church tonight.

The whist party will be held, tonight at Masonic hall. Playing will begin at 8:30 p. m.

A substantial cash first prize, a door prize and many other awards will be distributed during the evening. The public is cordially invited.

Height of Chimneys

Height plays a considerable part in the efficiency of a chimney, many authorities maintain. For this reason, chimney heights of 30 to 35 feet as a minimum are recommended. Any arbitrary minimums must be considered in the light of local conditions, however, as overhanging trees, the height of the chimney above the roof, and strong prevalent winds can cause disturbance in the draft action.

National Sportsmen's Show Opens

Outdoor life is being featured at the sixth annual National Sportsmen's show, February 15 to 23 in New York. Three acres of exhibits cover subjects like the model camp (lower left) to stunts and demonstrations in the large artificial "lake." Almost everything relating to hunting, fishing and outdoor sports is on display. A new feature is Warren Buck's exhibition (lower right) of curios collected during his travels in Africa. He is shown holding a tribal musical instrument from central Africa.

Song Bird Club

Late in the eighties the Portland (Ore.) Song Bird club, a society for the introduction of useful song birds, was founded. This organization raised considerable money and imported many birds between 1889 and 1907. It nearly succeeded in establishing the skylark in the neighborhood of that city between 1899 and 1903. The species certainly bred in the neighborhoods of Portland, Salem and Gresham, and existed for 20 or 30 years. The bureau believes that one of these colonies is thriving at the present time.

Western Duck Sickness

Vance T. Wilson is one hunter who doesn't take his prizes home with him; he sets them free, reveals the American Magazine. Wilson is head of the Bear River Migratory Bird refuge at Brigham, Utah. He scours the marshes for sick ducks, and every year cures thousands of their most deadly disease—western duck sickness. The plague was brought on when irrigation projects took away too much water.

Dried Blood Transfusion

As a result of research work done at the Moscow Central Institute of Hematology and Blood Transfusion, a method has been developed by which blood can be dried, stored in sealed glass containers, and liquefied when needed.

Poisonous Venom

The quantity of venom injected into a victim when bitten by a poisonous snake depends upon the size of the snake, the length of time the poison has been accumulating, the depth of the fang thrust and the location of the bite.

It All Happens In 'Tin Pan Alley'

The street that makes America is brought to the screen with all its romance, color, laughter, glamour and heartbreaks in "Tin Pan Alley," musical of our exciting times which will play Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, at the Daly City theatre. Keyed to the mood of America and spectacularly produced, the 20th Century-Fox hit has a brilliant cast headed by Alice Faye and Betty Grable, who are starred. Jack Oakie and John Payne top a superb list of featured entertainment-makers including Allen Jenkins, Esther Ralston, the Nicholas Brothers and Ben (Shadrach) Carter.

Self-Control

Men and women are not like leaves, blown about by every wind, or like clay, receiving and retaining whatever impress is made upon them. They have an inward force enabling them to control, to a large extent, the influences that bear upon them—to welcome some, to resist others, and not only passively to receive, but actively to digest and assimilate that which they receive, so that it becomes a very part of themselves.

Kansas City Shakeup

The shakeup of the Kansas City police department has really brought results. Cleanup has extended beyond crime and politics. Now Saturday night baths will be given the —well—here's the story from the beginning. A police captain strolling through a park noticed the fish pond was scummy and the gold fish were mighty dingy. He ordered the water changed and each fish washed every Saturday night in a salt solution to brighten it up a bit.

Concord Grapes

In 1840 some boys of Concord, Mass., gathered wild grapes in the nearby woods. On their way home they threw some of the seeds on the land of Ephraim Bull. Mr. Bull preserved one of the seedlings that sprang up, and when it fruited he planted its seeds. One of the second generation of plants proved superior to the others, so he preserved this, which became the parent of that variety of grapes. Thus the "Concord" grapes.

least have sent his suit to Beeson Cleaners," she said finally.

"There wasn't any Beeson Cleaners," John protested weakly. "There weren't even any shoe stores," he continued more vigorously. "In all that snow and ice those poor soldiers had to keep their feet wrapped up in gunnysacks."

Sue Ann's childish heart was touched at last.

"The poor soldiers," she said. "I'd like to send them some roses—bright red roses like the Daly City Nursery has. And some of those big raviolis from Lucca's."

Clear through the wall we could feel John beaming. Now he was getting some place in the story about the Father of His Country. Even if he privately thought that a good stiff Scotch-and-soda from Gelsi's would have been more help than roses.

"We could write a column for them like Momee does," Sue Ann was prattling on. "Tell them to buy a used car from National Auto company so they could chase the British soldiers away. And they could buy some oil and gas from Carr's service station so they could go real fast."

"He never once told a lie," said John seriously.

This brought our mind back to earth in a hurry. Now what did that remark have to do with Momee's column, we wondered.

"And he only had his picture painted once," John continued. "There weren't any modern photographers then like Mr. Dale A. Hovey. But he looked nice. Just as nice as if he had come from Acton Barber Shop; but it was harder to shave in those days."

We could feel Sue Ann's mind wandering back into the snow.

"And that's why people buy new radios now from Byrne's and listen to the 'Stars and Stripes Forever'," said John.

"Please, Daddy, can't I go up into the snow?"

"No," said John. "Confound it, NO!".

Milk on the Hoof

In Sicily there is no milk problem for visitors daily see milk delivered "on the hoof." Goats are driven to one's door and their milk is drawn from them before the customer.

Frog Business

Frogs give every indication of eventually becoming "big business" in the West. One company capitalized at $200,000 has filed articles of incorporation for the opening of 20 frog ranches near Modesto, Calif.
